

Gramwick Trail, Mountain Brook Reservoir, Jaffrey, NH

- - - Gramwick Trail (~1 mile)
- Conservation Area (77 acres)
- Monadnock Conservancy lands
- P Parking (parking lot on the east side of Peabody Hill Rd.)

Many thanks to Herb and Colette Gramm who generously gifted this land to the Monadnock Conservancy in May 2016. The trail is named after the Gramms and their friend Tom Sedgwick who helped them build the trail.

Directions to the property, from downtown Jaffrey

From the stop-lighted intersection at Main Street and Route 202, head south on River Street (Route 202) for .04 mile. Turn right onto Gilmore Pond Road. After about a mile you will reach the intersection with Sandy Lane; keep left to stay on Gilmore Pond Road. Continue for another .07 mile until you reach Peabody Hill Road. Bear left onto Peabody Hill Road. Head down the hill and, just after the bridge, you'll see a parking area and trailhead on your left.
